

DRUNKENLY - SU ISAAC

CH:

*Drunkenly digging in the dark
Trying to find a safe place for my heart
I know one day I'll find my spark
Till then oh heart*

V1:

*Thought I found the one who was ready to love me
You're the one that wasn't supposed to leave
But I guess it wasn't meant to be
I still waited a minute acted like, I don't mind
But tell me how am I supposed to find
Peace of mind
When you're all that I think about day and night
I really hope you think about me too sometimes Convinced all I had to do is wait for you
So there I was waiting, for you*

CH:

*That's why I'm
Drunkenly digging in the dark
Trying to find a safe place for my heart
I know one day I'll find my spark
Till then oh heart*

V2:

*I was sitting across from you there I was thinking
You give me what I needed
You let me love you
Then why do I feel this uncertain
Tell me that you love me too

You tell me you need some time to think it through
But I don't think this means to you
What it means to me, what it means
And I've been here before I know how this plays out
I'm left waiting
Waiting*

I'll wait for you

Bridge:

*Then I notice
That it's too late
And it weighs on my mind
That I'm lonely
Is it all in my head, oh it's all too soon
And it was way too good to be true*

That's why I'm

CH:

*Drunkenly digging in the dark
Trying to find a safe place for my heart (heart)
I know one day I'll find my spark
Till then
oh heart*
